A Convention for the Lakes.

Our Southern and South Western exchanges, for a month or more past, have teemed with articles relative to "the Memphis Convention." Circulars, inviting the aid and co-operation of editors and publishers along the lakes, have been liberally distributed, and every effort made to unite a great varity of interests, and secure the attendance of a large number of delegates, in the proposed assemblage. The object, it is pretty well understood, of this gathering, is to impress upon Congress the justice, as well as the expediency, of attending more than it has hitherto done, to the improvement of Southern rivers, the developement of Southern resources and the advancement of Southern interests. We think that Congress has already done the South a pretty good turn in annexing Texas to the Union, solely with a view to prop up and perpetuate the decaying institution of Slavery. Nevertheless we are quite content that the aid of the General Government should be extended in every constitutional form towards the construction of roads, the improvement of rivers, and the prosecution of every other public work, important to the defence, or essential to the prosperity of our Southern Sister States.

We have said that the aid of the West and North-West has been invoked to swell the attendance and enhance the influence of the Memphis Convention. And yet among the objects enumerated as likely to engage the attention of this body, we can hardly find one in which the people of our Lake region are directly interested. The list embraces, indeed, the improvement of the Western rivers; the completion of the National Road; the erection of a South-western armory; the establishment of a direct trade with Europe; the construction of a Ship Canal between Lake Michigan and the Illinois River; and, in general, the adoption, by the General Government, of every project yet broached for the advancement of Southern and South-Western interests. It may be said that the Ship Canal, to unite the waters of the Lakes with those of the Mississippi, is a subject of some interest to us in this region. But we believe that this item was merely thrown in "as a tub to the whale," and without any belief, on the part of the projectors of the Memphis Convention, that the enterprize was feasible, or likely to find favor with the General Government. If a desire had really been felt to bring Western and North-Western interests, as well as those of the South and South-West, within the pale of the Memphis Convention, some mention would assuredly have been made of the two great objects which the people along the shores of the Lakes have most at heart, viz: THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE LAKE HARBORS and THE SECURITY OF LAKE NAVIGATION. Not the slightest reference to either of these subjects is made in any of the published programmes, we have yet seen, of the Memphis Convention. They are not "in the bill," and if they come before the Convention at all it will be as an incidental and secondary matter. It is clearly not to advance such objects and interests that the Memphis Convention has been called.

Now we are among the number of those who regard the improvement of Harbors, the construction of Light-houses, and the adoption of other measures which shall promote the safety and security of navigation, on all our great Lakes, as of infinitely more consequence to the People of the North West at least, than any one of the objects of the Memphis Convention or, in truth, than all of them put together. We are by no means disposed, therefore, to see interests of this magnitude slighted, as they seem likely to be, in the approaching gathering of the South-western clans. On the contrary, while perfectly willing that our fellow citizens of the South should take whatever measures they may deem necessary to impress upon Congress their claim to the aid and protection of the General Government, we hold that a Northern and North-Western Convention should also be called, at some convenient point on the Lakes, for the express purpose of considering the subjects to which we have alluded, and of so concentrating the efforts and influence of the various States and Territories, interested in the improvement of the Lake Navigation, as to compel Congress to lend an attentive ear to our petitions and a helping hand in the construction of the necessary works. Such a Convention has already been proposed at Buffalo, the Venice of our Western Mediterranean. We heartily approve and echo the suggestion. Were such a Convention called and Delegates sent thither from all the ports on Ontario, Erie, St. Clair, Huron, Michigan and Superior, carrying with them such necessary details as to the trade, population, growth and prospects of their respective neighborhoods, what an amount of statistical information would be accumulated, and how overwhelming a mass of evidence could be collected and laid before Congress, as to the extent and increase of our Lake Marine, and the paramount importance of improving our Lake Navigation. Shall we not have, then, a CONVENTION FOR THE LAKES?

☞ Our fellow-citizen, Mr. D. Upman, has opened a Coffee House on East Water street, a few doors east of the City Hotel, where he will be happy to see his friends and the public. The establishment is very neatly fitted up, and well stocked. Hot Coffee, beef steak and other "fixins" can be had at short notice, at any reasonable hour of the day or night.

TRIAL FOR MURDER.—The trial of Mary Nulton for the murder of her husband, is set down, we understand, for Thursday of this week. It will probably engage the attention of the Court for two or three days. In compliance with the request of the prisoner's counsel, we shall refrain from publishing any portion of the testimony while the trial is pending: but when it is over we shall give our readers some account of the case.

☞ We learn from the Burlington, Vt. Free Press, that "Miller, the father of fanatical delusion concerning the end of the world, which has done so much mischief in various sections of the country, has commenced at that place his lectures anew, taking ground now that the end is to be in 1847.

☞ The Buffalo Pilot of Nov. 11, reports the steamboat New Orleans as having cleared that day for Chicago.

Mail Route from Buffalo to Milwaukie.

In adverting, yesterday, to the irregularities of the mails we suggested such an improvement in the route between Buffalo and Milwaukie as would secure a much more speedy and certain transmission of the mails to this place. By the adoption of some such schedule as the one indicated in our article, the mail, which is now six or seven days in coming from Buffalo, would reach us in three. Indeed there would be no difficulty in getting it here in two days and a half from Buffalo, if measures were taken to establish a steamboat line between this town and St. Joseph's. An opportunity to do this will be afforded next spring. A new steamboat, designed for the Lake Michigan trade, is now building on St. Clair river for Capt. Ward of the Champion. It would be to the interest of the owners to run this boat regularly between St. Joseph and Milwaukie, touching at Racine and Southport. In addition to the contract for carrying the mail for our whole Territory, they would get plenty of freight and passengers, and each successive year would make the route more and more profitable. The Gazette urges our citizens to take measures to secure the establishment of a mail route direct between St. Joseph and our town, which it thinks will be a sufficient inducement to Capt. Ward to run a boat, next season, between the two places. Let us, by all means, do so: and at the same time urge the P. O Department to make some better arrangements for the transportation of the mail from Buffalo, via Detroit, to St. Joseph. The adoption of such a schedule as the one we spoke of yesterday, and the expenditure of a few thousand dollars additional on the stage routes through Michigan, would expedite the mail two, or three days even, between Buffalo and Milwaukie. This town is the distributing reservoir for the mails of the whole Territory. Our own population is not far from ten thousand, and that of the Territory must be one hundred and twenty thousand. Surely our numbers and rapid growth entitle us to the increased mail facilities for which we ask.

SUSPECTED MURDER.—We learn that the body of a man named Cowen, a resident of Granville, in this county, was found last week on the beach of the Lake, between Sauk Washington and Sheboygan, with a bullet hole through the head and the throat cut from ear to ear. It is supposed that Cowen was on his way to Green Bay, intending to enter some land at the office there, and that he was waylaid, robbed and murdered. He has left a family in Granville. We trust that a reward will be offered, and other measures taken for the discovery and arrest of the perpetrators of this bloody deed.

ANECDOTE.—If the following anecdote isn't worth the subscription price of this newspaper, 'taint our fault, that's all.

"What's the price of this silk?" inquired a deaf old lady of a young shopman.

"Seven shillings," was the reply.

"Seventeen shillings!" exclaimed she; "I'll give you thirteen."

"Seven shillings, madam, is the price of the silk," replied the honest draper.

"Oh! seven shillings," the lady sharply rejoined: "I'll give you five."

RAILROAD WINTER FREIGHT.—The several Railroad Companies have agreed upon the price of freight from Buffalo to Albany through the winter. The following are the rates from the principal points, including toll:

	Flour bbl.	Pork & Beef cwt.
Buffalo to Albany,	115 cts.	66 cts.
Rochester to do	88	50
Auburn to do	61	35
Syracuse to do	52	30
Utica to do	37½	25

Merchandize, Manufactures, Poultry, Leather, &c. &c., at about the same rate per cwt. as Pork and Beef.

These rates are much lower than last year.

RESPECT FOR WORKING MEN.—The York (Pa.) Democratic Press, Loco, utters the following vile slander upon the operatives in that State:

"It is too often the case in political times we find employers driving their operatives to the polls like cattle for the purpose of depositing tickets selected for them by those for whom they toil. At the last Presidential Election whole gangs of those WHITE SLAVES marched to the Polls from Iron works and Factories, and in every instance their votes were given for Henry Clay."

This is a sample of the real respect and interest felt for the poor, by their "exclusive" friends of the Democracy!

FINANCE ILLUSTRATED.—The Natchez Free Trader (Loco) contains a Sheriff's advertisement of several Judgments for sale to pay the costs of court in obtaining them; among which, and the principal are the following:

Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of Mississippi, vs. Robert J. Walker and others, 1843,	$8,885
The same, vs. Robert J. Walker, etc. 1843,	9,415
Amount of two Judgments,	$18,300

This is but a den-bite of the debts of our astonishing Secretary of the Treasury and "great gun" of the Annexation villainy. But this is no touch to a joke a Loco Foco dolefully told us of Robert J. Robert, it seems, bought all Van Buren's Washington furniture when the latter had no farther use for it, and paid liberally for it—in promises. So it stands to this day. Next, he blew up the Texas bladder, went to Baltimore, and beat Van Buren out of a renomination for President. He's a smart chap, is Robert, and we would sooner be had any other man's money than ours.—[N. Y. Tribune.

☞ The work of Humboldt, now publishing, speaks of comets as an "innumerable host." When we estimate the length of their relative orbits, the boundaries of their perihelia, and the great likelihood of their remaining invisible to the inhabitants of the earth, by the rules of probabilities, we find they must amount to such myriads as makes the imagination pause amazed. Kepler says there are more comets in the depth of space than there are fishes in the bosom of the sea, and yet the comet of 1811 requires 3,065, and that of 1680 requires 8,800 years for their revolution; the first receding twenty-one and the second forty four times further from the Sun than Uranus, or 5,400 and 17,600 millions of miles.

JOGGING HIS MEMORY.—"Recollect, sir," said a tavern-keeper to a gentleman who was about leaving his house without paying the reckoning; "recollect, sir, if you lose your purse, you didn't pull it out here."

Ex-Gov. Paine, of Vermont, has sent orders to South America for a number of Alpacas, with the view of naturalizing them if possible in that State. We hope the Governor will succeed in the enterprize, but we should think at first look that an animal peculiar to the climate of South America, in the latitudes where we believe the Alpacas flourish, would hardly find the Green Mountains of Vermont very congenial to their natures.

DO YE KEN HALLECK?

MR. EDITOR:—On a beautiful morning in June last I took a conveyance from Ayr and drove to "Alloway Kirk," a few miles distant—the road leading by the birth-place of Burns, I alighted there—and found it occupied by a ruddy, hale and animated Scotch matron. She was exceedingly civil, and entered at once with much enthusiasm into a full description of various events and incidents directly associated with the origin of Burns; particulars of which, as they are matters of history, it were needless here to repeat. The Cottage is a very humble, thatched building, divided into three apartments; a kitchen, a sitting room, and a stable or rubbish-room The kitchen floor is laid with rough flat stones, and in one corner of this room is a small nook just large enough for a humble bed. Here Burns was born.

The room next to this kitchen is what might be called a keeping-room or parlor. Its floor is of plank. A small elm-wood table and a few chairs constitute its entire furniture. Every article of which is covered with names and initials of "pilgrims to that shrine." The good dame told me that she had "sold all the furniture to a gentleman of Glasgow, for a good warm sum,"—"but," says she, "it is no the furniture of Burns, and I told the gentleman so; but he said it had been long enough in the house to answer his purpose, and as we move away in October next, it would no longer be any value to us."

It appears that the father of this good dame took the house after the elder Mr. Burns (the father of the Poet) left it, and the same family has retained possession ever since.

"There," says she, "that little cupboard door there is worth more than a' the furniture; but that I could na' sell, as it belongs to the hoose—but many a supper has Robert eaten from that cupboard; and the door is the same that old Mr. Burns made himself."

In fact the father of the Poet built the cottage with his own hands. The whole structure is only one story high; about twelve or fifteen feet wide, and perhaps thirty feet in length.

A short distance beyond this cottage stand the Ruins of Alloway Kirk; a small remnant of a small building, its two gable ends still remain with a portion of its side walls, its roof and rafters, with every vestige of woodwork belonging to it, gone long since into chairs and snuff boxes.

The "Bonnie Doon" was near; the space between its "Banks and Braes" occupied by a beautiful cottage of exquisite form and finish, (bearing the name of Doonbrae Cottage) and covered with vines and surrounded with roses and other flowers.—Whilst walking around the ruins of the "Old Kirk," an elderly person approached me from the cottage, whose manner and appearance at once invited me to a conversation with him. I soon found that he was the owner and occupant of the cottage I had been admiring, and he kindly invited me in, which invitation I readily accepted.

I found him a second and improved edition of the good dame of the old cottage in all matters associated with Burns; his rooms were filled with beautiful pictures and drawings of scenes and events rendered immortal by the genius of the poet; and under glass cases were secured various letters and other papers in the hand writing of Robert Burns.

I told him I had come from afar to visit the spot

"Aye, mon," said he, "many come even fra London"

"Yes," said I, "and so have I even from New London."

He look enquiringly; and to satisfy him at once, I told him I had come from New York in the U. States of America—and although I had visited many interesting points in Scotland, I felt that I had seen little, did I not visit the birth place of Burns, Alloway Kirk, the Braes of Doon, and other scenes consecrated by his genius

"You came from New York! then you may have haird of Halleck!"

"O yes," said I, "he is a neighbor of mine; I know him intimately and well, every body knows him in America.

"Ye ken Halleck!" and looking at me with a mixture of doubt and joy, like a man who had just picked up a coin covered with mud, stands rubbing and looking at it alternately, to see whether it comes out gold or brass—"ye ken Halleck say ye, gi us your hand mon again."

I soon assured him of the fact; and turning from me, he went to his library and brought me a very beautifully bound book, lately published, containing all the writings of Burns, sketches of honors paid to his memory, and filled with beautiful pictures of scenes and events associated with the Poet; and hurrying back back to its first pages, "there," said he, look at that; there is not in all that book, except what Burns himself has written, any thing that compares with Halleck's lines on that "wild rose of Alloway." Sure enough, there stood in proud and merited eminence that beautiful poem of my countryman. I commenced reading it, and at every line he would make some exclamation—"is na that poetry," "does not that warm the heart," "aye mon."

"There is nothing like it, Sir, in a' the language, sin the days of Burns himself."

I had often thrilled with pleasure in reading those lines, when far distant from the scenes they described; but reading them here on the very spot made the blood dance, to say nothing of the accompaniment of Davy Auld, my kind host, who stood by slapping his hands, stamping his foot, and smacking his lips, and fetching a deep "hey mon" at intervals.

After accompanying me to the monument hard by, and to the "Brig O' Doon," calling my special attention to the "Key Stane" where "Tam O'Shanter" just saved himself, but lost the tail of his old mare Maggie. (——)

"And pointing out every scene and incident around, with all which, Mr. Auld was as familiar as with his own fingers, I left him and, returned to Ayr, where I promised to wait for him till he had carefully packed up some "mementoes for Halleck," which he desired me to carry to him, and which pleasing duty I strictly performed; for as old Davy Auld says,—"Who kens Halleck and does na feel proud o' him?"

The Pittsburgh Chronicle says that 147 kegs of nails have been frequently cut in nine hours, at one of the works in that city with nine large and five small machines.

A MAN AND WIFE TO BE HUNG.—Crawford Burnett and his wife Livinia have been sentenced to be hung at Fayetteville, Arkansas, for being accessaries to the murder of Jonathan Sibley. The deed was committed by their son and his cousin.

☞ Somebody, who has evidently got into the world through some odd mistake, has written this:

What are another's faults to me!
I've not a vulture's bill
To pick at every flaw I see,
And make it wider still.
It is enough for me to know
I've follies of my own—
And I on my heart the care bestow,
And let my friend alone."

Mike Walsh, in his last "Subterranean," remarks, that an eminent Locofoco, holding two good offices, is now pushing for Register, and adds—

"Three such offices at a time would'nt be very bad to take If such grasping and insatiable avarice can be called "democracy," I should like to know what in the name of Heaven, they consider "federalism."

Rather green, that question, Mike! A man who works steadily, lives prudently, sleeps contentedly, envies no man, reads what is going on regularly, sends his children to good schools week days, and takes them to church Sundays, never wishing for office, and always voting just as he thinks best for the country, is pretty certain to be branded a Federalist—It is not a bad name, however, if you have sense enough to understand it.—[N. Y. Tribune.

J. C. PICKETT, Esq; has presented to the National Institute at Washington, a fragment of the flag of Pizarro, the conqueror of Peru, and a lock of hair of Gen. Bolivar, the great champion of South American Independence Pizarro's flag was a piece of plain white silk, and the fragment now in possession of the Institute is more than three hundred years old.

"Potomac," the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot, writes as fol ows—

"An officer of the Navy has recently received a letter from Mr. McLane, our Minister at London, in which the writer predicts that the officer will have something to do before long! It is inferred from this that Mr. McLane, occupying a position to know pretty distinctly what each of the two countries will and will not do in relation to a settlement of the Oregon question, apprehends a resort to arms."

We find on our table several papers of the "Indian Weed," marked "H. W. McCraken's Fine Cut, Milwaukie." Competent judges pronounce the article of the first order.

We cordially wish our young townsman success in the flourishing location he has chosen, and commend him to those among whom he is henceforth to reside.

TEXAS.—By the steamboat New York, we have files of Texas papers to the 22d ult—They contain little of interest. The Houston Star says—

"We have heard from several precincts in the adjoining counties, and learn that the vote has been almost unanimous for annexation and for the constitution At Swartwout and Rankin precincts, in Liberty county, every vote was for the constitution, and only one against annexation

"In the precincts in Austin county that have been heard from, there was only four or five votes cast against Annexation At Brenham, in Washington county, there were only four or five votes cast against annexat on out of two hundred, and fourteen against the constitution"

A CASE OF MESMERISM.—We learn that yesterday a tumor or cancer was cut from the breast of Mrs. North of this city, by Dr. Kimball. Before proceeding to perform the operation Mrs. North was put into a magnetic state by Mr. Gleason, overseer of the Middlesex wool shop. The operation was a very painful one, and occupied some fifteen minutes, during which time the lady gave no intimation that she suffered pain and after the operation was performed and she became perfectly conscious, she said she was pained very little, though she had a sort of dreamy, indistinct notion all the while that the operation was going on. We obtained these facts from Dr. Kimball Several persons were present all the time, among whom was he Rev Mr Remington. All of the parties are of the highest respectability and are known as among our best citizens. We give the above facts to show that mesmerism is not all a humbug, as many of us supposed.—[Lowell Courie.

JUVENILE PRECOCITY.—The St Louis Organ tells the story of a boy in that city who was caught by an old fellow swinging upon his gate.

"Clear out from there, boy or I'll set the dog on you," shouted the man at the top of his voice.

"Go to the d—l" old stick-in-the-mud—you 'aint got no dog!" responded the little shaver.

The last seen of the man he was hunting for a brickbat.

THE RETORT SURGICAL.—At a late examination of the college of surgeons a candidate was asked by Abernethy, what he would do if a man were blown up by gunpowder?"

"Why," coolly answered the tryo, "wait till he came down again."

"Then," said Abernethy, "and suppose I kicked you for such an impertinent reply, what muscles should I put in motion?"

"Why," replied the young man, "the flexors and extensors of my arm, for I should floor you directly."

A NEW PROPELLER. Capt. G. W. JAMES, of the propeller Phoenix, informs us, that he, in connection with others, is about to commence the construction of a new propeller at Cleveland, to be out in the Spring. The Phoenix has fully met the anticipations of her builders in regard to speed, and as a sea vessel, Messrs Pease & Allen have now two of the first class of boats of this description, the Oregon and Phoenix, and with the one to be constructed this winter, Cleveland will have a pretty fair propeller representation upon the lakes.—Buffalo Pilot.

Capt. Appleby, of the Lexington, reports a brig ashore in Gravelly Bay—name not known.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—Fifty houses were destroyed by fire at Wilmington, N. C., on the 4th inst. The loss is estimated at $175,000.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.—A horrible occurrence took place on Tuesday morning, out at the Kensington Iron Works, Pittsburgh, a man by the name of J. T. Bradford, fell in between two large cast iron cog wheels, and was instantly torn to fragments.

FIRE AT RAHWAY, N. J.—A fire occurred on Friday, near Rahway, destroying the large factory, the property of Mr. Trussler, known as the "Essex Print Works," situated in Essex county, about two miles from that place. Loss estimated at from 50 to $60,000. Fully insured.

FROM PENNSACOLA—IMPORTANT.—The Pensacola correspondent of the Mobile Tribune, under date of Oct 29, says

The U. S. steamship Mississippi arrived at this port to day, and anchored off the Navy Yard at 10 o'clock, A. M.

She is five days direct from Vera Cruz, and brings important communications from the Mexican Government—so important indeed that the Princeton was despatched with duplicate copies, and both steamships were directed to reach Pensacola with all possible celerity. The Princeton has not yet arrived, having been beaten by the Mississippi

To-day being a mail day, the communications were immediately carried up to Pensacola in the U. S. steamer Gen. Taylor, and thence despatched to Washington.

THE INDIANA SUNK.—The steamboat Wayne, which arrived last evening experienced very rough weather on her downward passage. She reports the steamer Indiana sunk in Maumee Bay, in the vicinity of Grosse Point. The extent of the damage, we could not learn. The Madison was compelled to lay over at Erie, and other vessels afloat, to seek shelter, where best they could, during the storm of Sunday night.

FLOUR GOING DOWN.—A scow loaded with 400 bls. flour, belonging we understand, to Messrs. Wilbridge, Hayden & Co. sunk in the harbor early yesterday morning, or on Sunday night. The flour has been recovered, somewhat damaged of course.—[Buffalo Pilot, Nov. 11

THE MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
Milwaukie, Nov. 18, 1845.

The tendency of the Wheat market is still upward.—Good samples have sold freely to-day at 71 cents. The supply, however, continues small, though we are inclined to believe that the larger portion of the crop is still back. Buyers are holding off in the expectation of higher prices, but the present condition of the Eastern markets hardly warrants any further advance here. We hear of sales of Red Hobbies at $1.00 per 60 lbs. Country brands are probably worth $38. Oats continue scarce at 25 cents.

The Propeller Phoenix arrived here to-day, after a very short passage from Buffalo, having left that port on Wednesday last, Nov 12th. She brings a very heavy load of freight, and over 100 passengers. The market at Buffalo was drooping a little, and transactions limited. On the Canal freights continued very high, and the amount of business doing was large beyond all precedent. We hear that there is a good deal of freight in Buffalo for the Upper Lakes, and some little probability that the Oregon will come up once more this season.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.

FLOUR—The market is rather quiet. Considerable sales, however, have been made at $5,12½ for Western and Genesee. Sound bbl. 5,75@5,81½. Fine Middlings, 5,25. Middlings, 4,75. Brandywine, Georgetown and Richmond county do 5,12½.

GRAIN—Corn is in request, for shipment, at 75 cents. Northern and Jersey the same, weight. Rye is without change at 74@75 cts. Oats, 44@45c.

☞ The QUESTION SETTLED!! Beyond a doubt that FEVER and AGUE can be speedily cured without the least injury to the constitution, by the use of "Dr. GRANDJEAN'S MAGIC BALSAM." Hundreds of persons can testify to its superiority over all other medicines that are "recommended" to cure.

Its first impression is upon the nervous system, and the nerves head brain become deranged, frantic and diseased and hence death. After this the general system may live and I per cent sinks beneath the attack unless relieved by a speedy remedy. Noxious chairs, calomel and mercury cause of fever, I may safely say throughout the land, when and then breathed out its loose, when the consumptions with the inflicted by their ravages, or destroyed by the resulting organic diseases and hence death. After this the general system may live and I per cent sinks beneath the attack unless relieved by a speedy remedy. Noxious chairs, calomel and mercury the system. In fact, the human frame is by nature perfect sound and healthy state, and every organ performing its functions properly there can be no disease of the predisposing causes, which is the poison of infection or marsh miasm, with the exception which has an impure state of the blood and depraved condition of the general constitution, and consequently, disease.

SAY! STRANGER—have you been at LUDINGTON & Co's Store on the corner, since they have received their Fall stock of GOODS? If you have not, I really advise you to go. It is a strange thing indeed to see such a quantity of Goods, and so equal an assortment, in any one store. I have often heard people say that they had a very large stock of Goods, but I never had an idea that their stock was so tremendously large. I have been all around town, in their "Wholesale Stores," "Cheap Cash Stores," "One Price Stores," "Great Excitement" Stores, "25 ₵ Cent less than any other House in the Territory" stores, "Fancy Stores," "New Stores," "Western Stores," &c. &c. I rather visiting all, I put LUDINGTON & Co's store down at extra No. 1. You will find them willing to wholesale or retail Goods cheap for cash, at one fair price without the least excitement, not 25 ₵ cent cheaper than any other store in town, and they have a fine assortment of Fancy Goods, and will sell as cheap as can be bought at any new store in this Western country. They have, according to the best authority and my own observations, the largest and best selected assortment of Goods in Milwaukie, and their prices appear to give first rate satisfaction among the people. It appears strange, but it is nevertheless true, that they should sell so many Goods to so many people. Why you can hardly go into any town in Wisconsin, but what you will see undoubted evidences that they are doing a tremendous large business. As far out as the Mineral region—yes! miles further you will see dry goods boxes, barrels, kegs, &c &c with Ludington & Co's name on which is a strong indication that they were sent there from their store, filled with Goods. Ask the principal residents of Milwaukie, Washington, Dodge, Walworth, Portage, Fond du Lac, Marquette, and numerous other counties, where they buy their dry goods, groceries hardware, crockery, hats and shoes, leather, stone ware, wooden ware nails, glass, ropes, paints, oils, pork, fish, salt, lumber, lath and shingles, and Minor & Horton's celebrated unrivaled Plough—they will tell you at the "Old Corner Store" in Milwaukie. Ask them still further, where they sell their produce, wheat, corn, oats, barley, timothy and flax seed, beeswax, hides, &c &c. and who gives the highest cash price, and they will tell you LUDINGTON & Co. of Milwaukie. oct8

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.—A couple of sturdy Farmers one coming to, and the other returning from town, on the Green Bay road, after having passed the usual salutations, were heard making the following remarks.
"Well, neighbor Dodson, I have come to the conclusion that it matters but little to us who is our Delegate in Congress, or which party maintains the ascendency, so long as our interests and the interests of our common country are protected; but the great question for us in our new homes, where the people learn their bread by the sweat of the brow, is to discover, first, where we can get the most money for the products of our labors next, where we can get the greatest amount, and the best qualities of the necessaries of life for that money. What say you, eh?"
"What say I, neighbor Dodson? Why, I say that my views coincide with yours exactly on that subject. Nothing has given me so much trouble as them co founded Milwaukie Merchants, and seeing you on your way home with your wagon full of the good things, I was just going to ask you who you sold your Wheat to—what you got for it, and where you did your trading. I suppose you have no objection to telling me?"
"No objection at all, neighbor Dodson, I will answer your questions with the greatest pleasure. I sold my Wheat to SAYRS—got seventy cents per bushel and dollars for it, and done my trading at the PEOPLE'S STORE. I have traded there pretty much altogether ever since the Store first opened. He always pays me the high st price for what I take to market, and sells me whatever I want a great deal cheaper than I can buy at any other store—Cloth at four shillings, Shoes at from two

FIRST RATE FOREIGN!

DRY GOODS,

Groceries, Crockery and Glassware, Hardware, Nails, Oils, Paints, &c.—All of which will be offered for sale at a small advance from cost, for cash or most kinds of country produce.

Believing the cash or ready pay system to be the cheapest and eventually the most profitable for the buyer as well as the seller, that principle will be adopted and strictly adhered to.—He does not wish to 'puff' and boast of his long residence and extensive acquaintance in New York—great facilities and extraordinary abilities in purchasing goods, &c.; or even say he will sell cheaper than any body else—but he does wish to say, his motto being "live and let live," and on the principle that a "nimble sixpence is better than a slow shilling," that he will sell "as cheap as the cheapest." the truth of which, he pledges himself to demonstrate to the entire satisfaction of every one who may favor him with a call. may22
